

October's the month
 When the smallest breeze
 Gives us a shower
 Of autumn leaves.
 Bonfires and pumpkins,
 Leaves sailing down –
 October is red
 And golden and brown.

Laughter is the Best Medicine
A senior citizen said to his eighty-year old buddy:
 "So I hear you're getting married?"
 "Yep!"
 "Do I know her?"
 "Nope!"
 "This woman, is she good looking?"
 "Not really."
 "Is she a good cook?"
 "Naw, she can't cook too well."
 "Does she have lots of money?"
 "Nope! Poor as a church mouse."
 "Why in the world do you want to marry her then?"
 "Because she can still drive!"

You know you are too old to Trick or Treat when:
 10. You get winded from knocking on the door.
 9. You have to have another kid chew the candy for you.
 8. You ask for high fiber candy only.
 7. When someone drops a candy bar in your bag, you lose your balance and fall over.
 6. People say: "Great Boris Karloff Mask," And you're not wearing a mask.
 5. When the door opens you yell, "Trick or ." And can't remember the rest.

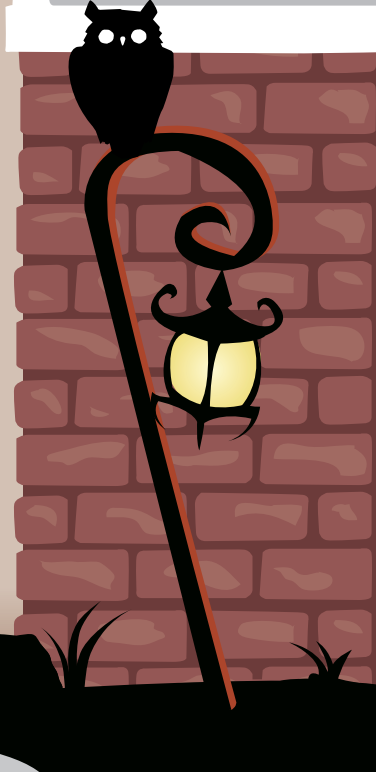

4. By the end of the night, you have a bag full of restraining orders.
 3. You have to carefully choose a costume that won't dislodge your hairpiece.
 2. You're the only Power Ranger in the neighborhood with a walker.
 And the number one reason Seniors should not go Trick Or Treating...You keep having to go home to pee.
 No matter, have a a HAPPY HALLOWEEN anyway.

From the Desk of the Life Enrichment Director

Autumn has arrived. It is time to get out and enjoy the wonderful fall weather. The residents and I will be going out to take a Fall Color Tour to enjoy nature and to see the change of colors. The colors of the trees are magnificent and God surely painted a beautiful picture of a season, which often is short lived. It is once again the football season and cheering on of our Bears. Hey, hey Chicago Bears! Yes, I realize there are Colt fans as well!! Go Colts! School is back in session so your families most likely will be busy with all the school events and spending weekends at sporting events of the grandchildren.

Remember the good old days when your children were involved in so many activities?
 As we are moving into a new season, we will be busy with the up and coming holidays. As I was decorating the branch I thought about how fast our days go. It is already time to think about Oktoberfest, Halloween and then right around the corner is Thanksgiving. I love the challenge of holiday programming and being creative and spontaneous, I believe it all falls into place. Please feel free to join us in any of our activities.
 Happy Fall
 Marnie
