

Burlington HAPPENINGS

December 2014

As I reflect back over this past year, I marvel at how and what our residents have gone through and endured. Some had a misfortune of breaking a bone and having to have surgery and rehab for recovery. This is a generation of strong determination-to get better. I was amazed to see their strength and progress through the rehab process to get back to 100%.

Some folks we had to accept it was "their time" to go to meet their Lord and Saviour. We also welcomed in many new residents to our Bickford family. As the Christmas season approaches us, let us all be thankful for the lives God has given us, the love in our hearts for one another, and pray and care for those in need. Being part of this Bickford family is a wonderful experience. I truly love each and every one of you residents. I am there for you. With love,

Life Enrichment Coordinator

Mildred and Bert ready for the trick or treaters.

Residents working on an activity with us.

Resident Karen is enjoying herself dancing with Bickford Family Member Jenny. Their dancing is a spontaneous activity. Of course, we also have scheduled activities. If you would like to volunteer and help out with any activities or crafts, contact Lynsey.

Mary entertaining the Mary B residents. They so enjoy music and some of them even love to get up and participate in dancing. We thank Mary for her willingness to play for all the residents. She puts in many hours each week in practicing the music she will play.

Resident Dot and her good friend, Delmar enjoying their dinner in the private dining room.
