Meet Dave

We have a new director at Bickford of Wabash. His name is Dave McMahan.

Dave lives in Fort Wayne with his beautiful wife, Maureen and beautiful daughter Caitlyn.

When he's not working at Bickford Dave enjoys worshipping, spending time with family, exercising, and playing tennis.

Dave has been an administrator for nearly 13 years. He worked in hospitals for 23 years both clinically and non clinically. His wife is a Librarian at the University of Saint Francis in Ft. Wayne. His daughter is a sophomore at Homestead High Scholl in Ft. Wayne.

We are pleased to have on board.

Welcome, Dave!

Fun Near and Far

Fun at Home

BINGO! Bingo is a favorite at Bickford of Wabash, and we play every Thursday. Residents play for Bickford Bucks. And, the competition is fierce. We play a variety of games including cover-all and four corners. On the last Thursday of the month those Bickford Bucks can be redeemed at the Bingo Store for all kinds of fun things.

There's always something fun to do.

Faraway Fun

Mushers begin the "Last Great Race" across the Alaskan wilderness on March 7. The word Iditarod comes from the native northwestern Alaskan language and means "distant place." It's the name of a city, a river, a trail, and the famous 1,150-mile dogsled race.

Not just any dog can compete in the race. Only dog breeds accustomed to the cold, such as Alaskan Malamutes and Siberian or Alaskan huskies, are allowed to race.

In 1990, rules for accepted dog breeds were established. Frigid temperatures are not a dogsled team's only threat. The town of Willow, often the starting line of the Iditarod, is known as "Moose Alley." Massive moose have been known to charge racers.

The last team to cross the finish line is given the Red Lantern Award. This name comes from the lantern that is not extinguished until the last dog comes in.
