Mother
Emma Ruth Yoder
Meyersville, PA

There is no other one on earth,
Who'd fill my mother's place;
She's always gentle, kind, and true
And wears a smiling face.

She dried my tears when I was small. And bandaged many hurts;
She tenderly would clean me up
When I fell in the dirt.

So lovingly she cared for me;
And even gave a kiss. When childish troubles looped up high,
And too when I was sick.

At night she got up many times, to feed and care for me;
And even though she too was tired,
She'd first look out for me.

She'd lovingly caress me when,
I thought that no one cared.
She hugged me tight and soothingly;
Would often send up prayers.

So through it all the bonds did grow;
Between my mom and me,
And so I say she is the best
And dearest still to me.
