

"Whilst August yet wears her golden crown, Ripening fields lush-bright with promise; Summer waxes long, then wanes, quietly passing Her fading green glory on to riotous Autumn."
Michelle L Thieme

August Weather Lore
If the first week in unusually warm, the coming winter will be snowy and long.
For every fog in August there will be snowfall for winter.

Flower of the Month
Gladiolus

Gladiolus belong to the iris family. It blossoms in many colors and prefers full sunlight. The stem and leaves of the gladiolus stand tall and have pointed tips. The flower got its name from the Greek word gladius meaning sword. In Rome it is the flower of the gladiators.

Reminders

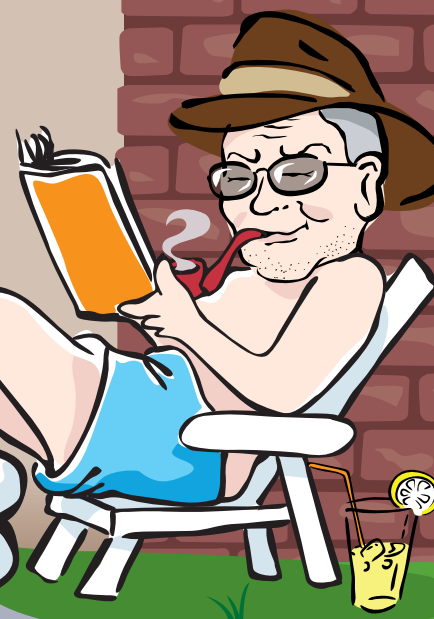

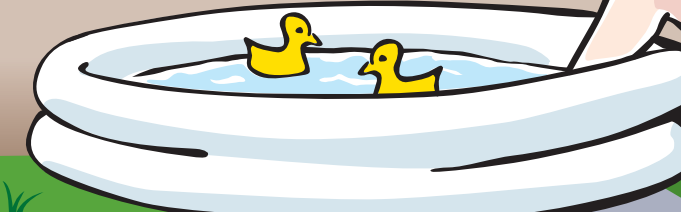

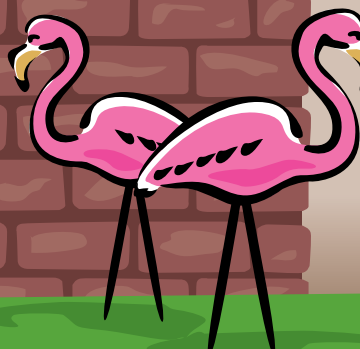

Alzheimer's and Dementia support group will meet every first and third Tuesday of every month. I encourage residents, family and Caregivers to attend.

Election time is coming soon and many have been asking about the election. I have information on both candidates for the 2017 presidency. I also want you to know I am working on absentee votes for residents interested.

Well that's all for now family.

Your LEC,
Precious
