Spotlight On

Ruby Patterson was born in Ann Arbor MI to Gladys and Ernie Seyfried. She had two siblings, Elaine and Jean. She and her father had an incredible Bond, fishing and going on trips, and Ruby often jokes that she was the son he never had. She remembers a wonderful childhood. Ruby was a CPA for three lawyers and later worked as a secretary to the Dean of U of M Nursing school. She married Jim Forshee and had two wonderful children Ann and John. They divorced after 27 years. Later she married Bud Patterson and they have now been married for 28 years. Ruby loves to sing and sang with her church choir for many years. She is a gifted seamstress, basket maker and quilter and even volunteered at the museum of Appalachia demonstating hot wo hand quilt in mark twains cabin. She and her husband loved to dance, their specialty is the Waltz and Foxtrot. Ruby would love to show you her baskets. Just ask her!
