

"Winds of March, we welcome you, There is work for you to do. Work and play and blow all day, Blow the winter wind away."

Author Unknown

March is the third month of the year in the Julian and Gregorian calendars. However, March use to be the first month-that is , until January and February were added to the calendar around 700 B.C. Regardless, many cultures and religions still celebrate the beginning of the new year in March. In Finnish, March is called maaliskuu, which means "earthly month," when the snow finally melts away to reveal the ground below. The Ukrainian word for March translates to "birch tree", which is one of the first trees to bud in spring.

Flower of the Month
Daffodil

The daffodill also known as narcissus or jonquil, is a sure sign of spring's return, with its bright yellow petals breaking through the remains of melting snow. In many cultures and religions, the daffodil is also a symbol of rebirth, new beginnings, and future prosperity. Their reemergence each spring reminds us that something beautiful can follow the coldest winter or the most difficult troubles.

Recieved as a gift, daffodils represent love, hope, joy, and respect. But, when giving this beautiful bloom, be sure to present them in a bunch- the gift of a single daffodil is a sign of misfortune.
