Our Featured Resident and BFM For April

Meet Betty Williams. Betty comes to us from Fountain County where she has helped her husband, Lee, farm for many years. Betty and Lee have 3 daughters and several grandchildren. Betty worked as a teacher and was a 4-H leader. She loves singing and is especially fond of John Denver music.

Our featured Bickford Family Member this month is Laura Strother. Laura has 2 sons and is engaged to Eric. They will be marrying in Alaska this summer. Laura is a wonderful cook and is also a CNA. In her spare time, Laura decorates cakes and processes meat.

We are very pleased to be able to introduce several new Bickford Family Members. Nikita LaFoe and Taryan Roberts have been working on our day shift for about a month. Mckenzie Case and Ashten Brooks just started working on our evening shift. They make a great addition to our already wonderful family! Joining us in April will be Diane Tscheann. She will work as a nurse on the evening shift. Please give a huge Bickford welcome to all!

Reminder of our caregiver support group that meets monthly. The next date is April 6th at 6pm.

Monthly happiness surveys will continue to be sent via text to any primary contact who has not opted out. Your responses help us to gauge how we are doing and adjust things if needed. If you are happy with what we are doing for your loved one, beyond just satisfied, mark 5. Please feel free, as well, to add comments. We appreciate any feedback you provide.
