April Fools Jokes

April is here and as we all are looking forward to Easter, which is a very important and significant holiday to many of us, we always seem to over look another widely celebrated day. Can you guess what day that is? April Fools day! It is one of the most widely celebrated non religious holidays, and no one seems to know why. I guess it's because of all the laughs it can bring on and all in good fun. Have you ever played a joke on anyone? Or has anyone played a joke on you?

"We always played jokes on each other when I was little, it was fun." -Betty

"I remember we played a trick on our sibling when April Fools was on a weekend. We would go around and make a big deal saying that we were late. My sister would wake up scared and run around getting ready. She would run to the kitchen as we stood there laughing saying April Fools."

-Unknown

"When I was a kid I remember playing hide and seek. Well I was it and I counted to 50 then I started looking for everyone. I looked and looked. I couldn't find anyone so after 20 minutes or so I took off and went to my friend's house. They all jumped out and said April Fools." -Unknown

Have a fun April!
