September Happynings!

The History of Labor Day
 The Labor Day Holiday grew out of the late 19th century organized labor movement, and it quickly became a National holiday as the labor movement assumed a prominent role in American society. The idea first became public in 1882 when the unions in New York City decided to have a parade to celebrate their members being in unions. At least 20,000 people were at the parade and had to give up a days pay to attend. Grover Cleveland introduced a law making Labor Day a federal holiday to be held on the first Monday in September. That law came into affect in 1894.

Can you wear white after Labor Day? The tradition goes back to the late Victorian era, where it was a fashion faus pax to wear anything white after the summer officially ended on Labor Day. But Labor Day is the official end of hotdog season. The National Hotdog and Sausage Council says that between Memorial Day and Labor day, Americans will eat over seven billion hotdogs!

Happy Birthday!
