Happy Valentine's Day

History of Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day gets its name from a famous saint, Valentine, who was from Rome in the third century. Emperor Claudius II banned marriage because he thought married men were bad soldiers. Valentine felt that it was unfair so he broke the rules and arranged marriages in secret. When Claudius found out about Valentine he had him placed in jail with the death sentence. While Valentine was in jail he fell in love with the jailer's daughter. He was killed on February 14 and he had sent the jailer's daughter a love letter signed "from your Valentine". This is only one of many stories.

Fun Facts
About Valentine's Day

- 189 Million stem of roses are sold in the United States on Valentine's Day with 110 million being the color red
- 73% of men and 27% of women purchase flowers for Valentine's Day
- Teachers receive more Valentine's Day cards than anyone else
- Valentine's Day is the second largest holiday for card sales
- Conversation Candy Hearts have a shelf life of 5 years
- Approximately 8 billion candy hearts are manufactured each year for Valentine's Day
- In the late 1800's the first box of chocolates was introduced by Richard Cadbury exclusively for Valentine's Day
