

HOT DOG BUNS AND GARNISHES DIFFER FROM PLACE TO PLACE
 Chicago Dogs - this type of hot dog is served on a poppy seed bun and is garnished with yellow mustard, dark green relish, chopped raw onions, tomato slices and celery salt. Kansas City Dogs - these are served with sauerkraut and melted Swiss cheese on a sesame seed bun. New York City Dogs - these contain steamed onions and pale yellow mustard. Coney Island Dogs - this type of dog comes topped with a spicy meat mixture. Southern Slaw Dogs - these are probably the only ones served with coleslaw. Corn Dogs - these are placed on a stick, dipped in corn bread batter and deep-fried. Tex-Mex Dogs - these are topped with salsa, Monterey Jack cheese and chopped jalapeno peppers. Pigs in a Blanket - these come wrapped in pastry and are baked. More commonly known as plain sausage buns. Baltimore Frizzled - split and deep-fried. Lilies/Lilliputians - these cocktail-sized sausages are usually served as an appetizer, and come with a sauce. July is National Hot Dog Month!

Portillo's Chicago Style Hot Dogs
Coming Soon--Across From The New Costco Entrance!!!

Portillo's Chicago's best hot dog franchise is coming to our QCA!!! The first restaurant in Iowa. Portillo's is a fast-casual restaurant that's located throughout Illinois and serves a classic Chicago-style hot dog. Chicago is famous for its hot dog, which is an all-beef Vienna dog topped with mustard, neon-green relish, tomatoes, white onions, a pickle spear, sport peppers, and a shake of celery salt. The perfect Chicago hot dog needs to have 'OBR' – the optimal bite ratio of toppings – according to Chicago's very own food expert Steve Dolinsky.

The hot dog has historical significance in the city of Chicago. The all-beef Vienna dogs with the essential seven toppings nestled in a poppy-seed bun is a thing of culinary legend. Even the award-winning, star chef Grant Achez of Alinea – one of the best restaurants in America – tips his hat to his city's most classic food. Portillo's, a chain restaurant with a majority of its 53 locations scattered throughout Illinois, serves among other things, a classic Chicago-style dog.

Portillo's started as a simple hot dog stand in 1963. Known as "The Dog House," owner and founder Dick Portillo invested $1,100 into the business – only to grow his empire and reportedly sell it for nearly $1 billion in 2014 to Berkshire Partners. It's obvious the people of Chicago love Portillo's. In 2014, right after the company was sold, The Chicago Tribune reported that the newer Portillo's locations brought in an average of $7 to $8 million annually.

Happy Birthday America--2018

John Adams, one of the founders of our new nation, said, "I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward for evermore." Independence Day was first celebrated in Philadelphia on July 8, 1776. In 1941, Congress declared July 4 a legal public holiday.
