From The Director's Desk

I'm so excited for Christmas. I can hardly believe that next Sunday Santa will be here again. I hope everyone is on the "good" list.

Everyone did a great job on our evacuation drill. It was a huge success so we decided to have two more this month.

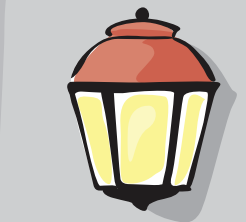

Congratulations to the KU Men's basketball team on their National Championship. RCJH!!

Join us on Wednesday April 31st in the first floor living room to celebrate Amy's retirement. Amy has been a magnificent Life Enrichment Coordinator. We will surely miss her. I hope she enjoys her golden years.

Art class will be changed to Monday evenings at 6pm and will be led by Bobby, our maintenance coordinator.

I hope you have enjoyed reading this April Fools edition of "From The Director's Desk." All information is completely made up and not true.

The kitchen will now be serving baked bean bars on Tuesdays. You won't want to miss these!
