MARCH

March Gladness

Greetings! Here we are into a new month, on our way to spring. March is thought to be a month of unknown madness but here at Bickford we like to think of gladness. We are so glad to be getting through the toughest part of winter with little chaos or troubles. We had no major water pipe issues thanks to our Maintenance guru, Kenny, and we are extremely grateful for all he has done getting us through this tough, cold and snowy winter. All of our BFM's have been working hard making sure sinks have been at a trickle, and cupboard doors remained open so the warmer air can circulate around the pipes. It has been a great group effort, and the payoff has been a trouble free artic season. So now...heading into spring we are glad to start seeing the snow and ice slowing melt and the Earth prepare for the green to pop through. March is unpredictable, but one thing is for sure...it is the beginning of the end of a season...the glimpse of a new season to come...and this is something to make us glad. Blessings from all of us here at Bickford Cedar Falls!!!
