

"When April steps aside for May,
Like Diamonds all the rain-drops glisten:
Fresh Violets open every day:
To some new bird each hour we listen."

May

May is the fifth month of the year. There are several theories about how May got it's name. The most widely accepted explanation is that it was named for maia, the Roman goddess of spring and growth. The Roman poet Ovid, however, provides a second etymology in which he says that the month of may is named for the maiores, Latin for "elders" or "ancestors," who were celebrated during this month.

Did You Know?
The term mayday is often used as a distress signal for sinking ships and crashing lanes. But what does May Day, the celebration on the first day of the month, have to do with distress call? Actually, the distress term is a mispronunciation of the French phrase m'aider, which simply means "Come help me!"
