Fun at home and about town

Resident Spotlight LaVonne Baker

LaVonne was born in and lived all her life near Jefferson, South Dakota on the family farm. At age 18 she attended summer school and began teaching in a country school with 5 students and 4 grades. While she was teaching and raising a family LaVonne furthered her education with bachelors and masters degrees from the University of South Dakota. She went on to teach in the elementary grades for the Sioux City schools until she retired after 31 years of teaching. After retiring she returned to education by serving as the Principal for the local Catholic school. LaVonne married Angelo Corio, and they had three children Bob, Angela, and Terri.

She is blessed with 7 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren who are her pride and joy. She has been active in many community organizations, her church, and volunteering. She enjoys square and ballroom dancing, and is an excellent cook. LaVonne is also blessed with an excellent sense of humor.

A Nation's Strength by Ralph Waldo Emerson

What makes a nation's pillars high
And it's foundations strong?
What makes it mighty to defy
The foes that round it throng

It is not gold. Its kingdoms grand
Go down in battle shock;
Its shafts are laid on sinking sand,
Not on abiding rock.

Is it the sword? Ask the red dust
Of empires passed away
The blood has turned their stones to rust,
Their glory to decay.

And is it pride? Ah, that bright crown
Has seemed to nations sweet;
But God has struck its luster down
In ashes at his feet.

Not gold but only men can make
A people great and strong;
Men who for tuth and honor's sake
Stand fast and suffer long.

Brave men who work while others sleep,
Who dare while others fly...
They build a nation's pillars deep
And lift them to the sky.
