Resident of The Month: Kay Allen

Kay Allen was born and raised in Coleman, Michigan to Sarah and Eugene Allen along with her 6 siblings James, Max, Brad, Sharon, Patricia, and Kim. Kay went to school at Coleman Elementary and then to Coleman Highschool. Kay was a member of the National Honor Society in High School where she then proceeded to attend Central Michigan University. At CMU, Kay received her B.S. and upon graduation attended Western Michigan University and Michigan State University for graduate school. During college Kay was a member of the Kappa Gamma Society. Kay then became an elementary school teacher and eventually took over the librarian position. She was a full time librarian and before she retired and she published a manual for all librarians to use. Kay and her significant other, Jacque, had a beautiful life together where his children called Kay mom and the grandchildren and great-grandchildren called her grandma! Kay enjoys quilting, painting, crafting, puzzles, especially reading. Kay loves to watch the Hallmark channel and support the MSU Spartans. Kay also enjoys playing scrabble, bridge, and loves to volunteer when she has a chance. Kay has a beautiful cat Misty here at Bickford that she loves dearly and is a great companion. Kay is very full of life, always smiling, very friendly, and is a great addition to our Bickford family. The next time you see Kay around, don't be a stranger and say hello!
