

September Birthday
 19th Leota Snyder Martin - May your birthday be as special as you are. HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!

We are so excited for some fall outings. We have a trip to a local apple orchard and a fall foliage tour planned. What a great time these events will be.

We had a Hat Day contest in August. Residents wore a variety of original and homemade hats. They voted on their favorite hat. Dorothy Tanner was the winner. She won a luncheon at Applebee's. Congrats to Dorothy and her "Little Miss Sunshine" hat.

HAPPENINGS

FALL IS COMING!!!!

Fall brings with it crisp air, football, apples, falling leaves, pumpkins and so much more. What a great time to be outdoors!!

We will celebrate fall in a variety of ways throughout September and October. The ideas for activities are endless. Come by anytime to join us for some fun.

Summer is fading quickly but we are ready to welcome the beauty of fall. We are planning a Fall Foliage outing next month.

September is a busy month. National Assisted Living Week is September 7-13. We will be enjoying music from 7 different entertainers and a ride on the Boilermaker Special during this week. What a wonderful way to celebrate having a place to reside with friends surrounding you and 24 hr care. We are very proud to provide care for all of our residents.

We are hosting a bake sale on September 20 @ 10 AM for the Alzheimer's Association. The bake sale will be at Walmart on Veterans Memorial Parkway. The Ambassador Band will be performing at 10:30 AM on September 18. Please come join us.

In October we will be hosting events with Rubia Flower Market & Purdue Bell Choir. Thank you to Erica Budreau for providing our YOGA class monthly. We appreciate all our wonderful volunteers.
