

Cookie Exchange

Hello Everyone,
We are hosting a Cookie Exchange on Wednesday December 19th from 3pm - 5pm.

How it works: Bring in a few different portioned out batches of cookies. We will have tables set up in our living room. While you are here, pick up some cookies someone else brought in. Then all you have to do is eat, converse and enjoy yourself.

If you want to supply a recipe with the cookies you are welcome to do that, and if it is a closely guarded family secret, we understand that as well.

Either way, we would love to see how many delicious and unique cookies will come through our doors and hope you will be there to try them out!
