September Birthdays

Betty M - September 16th

Welcome, Kiley Wetherford

choosing to volunteer in my spare time that inspired me to be here, which was something I never would've expected. It was a few days before Christmas, and I helped seniors craft a snow globe, and fell in love, then began the pursuit. I don't believe this was by chance or coincidence but by sheer destiny to be here, and it was simply choosing to do what I love.

Although this is such a short introduction into myself, here are some takeaways I want to leave with you as you continue to read:

1. Genuine and sincere connections with anyone and everyone are essential and incredibly valuable to me.
2. laughing adds more life to yours and mine, and I'm the biggest goof in the room.
3. If you find all my hair on top of my head, don't be afraid. I'm just seizing the day.

Hello, everyone! I'm Kiley Wetherford, your new Happiness Coordinator at Bickford of Wabash. I'm immensely excited to begin my journey with you all and even more thankful to receive this opportunity. You probably have lots of questions, so I'll answer a few icebreakers.

First, I have a Bachelor of Science in Psychology degree from Indiana University, so I truly enjoy getting to know others and understand them deeply. In school, I was a barista, so sunshine and smiles were my secret ingredients to a good morning and even better drink. After school, I was in the mental health field then transitioned into career services.

In my spare time, I create art, play with my dog, and volunteer. In fact, it was
